

IN KADIMA PROGRAM

Sovel Heshelow

A DINNER-DANCE will be sponsored by Kadima this evening in Shaare Zion synagogue. The dinner will start at 7 o'clock. On the program will be a skit, entitled A Wrong Impression, in which Sovel Heshelow, popular amateur actor, will play a leading role. Music for the dance will be furnished by Paul Ross' orchestra. Two hundred seventy-five persons are expected to attend.

Jewish Drama Club Is Formed to Give Plays

Group to Function as a Stock Company During Winter

THE Masque and Wig Players, a newly organized group of young persons interested in dramatics and the theater, held its first meeting recently at the Jewish Community center. The group is under the direction of Miss Florence Coates and meets once a week.

Plans are being made for the presentation of several one-act plays and a larger production of a three-act play in December. The club functions as a stock company, and has on its program for the year several plays before Sioux City organizations.

Charter members of the Masque and Wig Players include: William Slotsky, Eva Gordon, Ruth Wigodsky, Charlotte Salkin, Isadore Mirovitz, Alfred Albert, Mary Kaplan, Sara Baird, Ida Heshelow, Sovel Heshelow, Rose Rife, Ida Lipton, Eva Lipton, Charlotte Kanterovich, Sara Goldberg, Morris Merlin, Ben Herzoff, Milton Fishgold, Bess Kanterovich, Eva, Maron and Louis Slotsky.

Cabaret Dinner Dance Sponsored by Kadima Club

Amid an oriental atmosphere and colorful settings of Chinese black and amber, the second annual cabaret dinner dance of the Kadima club was held at the Shaare Zion synagogue Sunday. Nearly 275 persons attended.

Carrying out the oriental theme, members of the orchestra and waitresses were garbed in Chinese costumes.

Community singing led by Morris Lipschutz opened the entertainment followed by a one-act play, "Good Medicine." The cast for the play included Sovel Heshelow and the Misses Marcia Robinow and Ruth Wigodsky. Miss Ida Lipton directed the play.

Jack Merlin and the Friedman twins appeared in several song and dance numbers as the concluding part of the program. Mrs. Michael Mushkin and Mrs. J. Baron were chefs and Mrs. John C. Levin had charge of the dining room service. Will Baron is president of the Kadima club.

Miss Marcia Robinow

Sovel Heshelow

Miss Ruth Wigodsky

THE one act comedy, "Good Medicine," is to be presented at the annual cabaret dinner dance given by the Kadima in the social hall of the Shaare Zion synagogue at 7 o'clock this evening. The play is built around the theme of a young doctor's sufferings because of his honesty in his profession. The reward for his sincerity is a position as head of a health clinic with a large salary. The position is tendered him by a rich widow whom he gives truthful medical advice. The part of the young struggling doctor, Dr. Graves, is portrayed by Sovel Heshelow; the doctor's wife by Miss Marcia Robinow; and that of the rich widow by Miss Ruth Wigodsky. This cast was trained by Miss Ida Lipton.

New Officers of Kadima Club Are Installed

The newly elected officers of the Kadima club were installed at a meeting of the club held Tuesday night at the Shaare Zion synagogue. They are: Morris Lipschutz, president; I. H. Levin, vice president; Mrs. D. S. Robnow, secretary, and E. S. Robnow, treasurer. Will Baron, the retiring president, conducted the installation ceremonies.

A one-act sketch, "The Baby on the Air," was presented by a cast which included: Sovel Heshelow, Mrs. Sam Shulkin, Mrs. John C. Levine, Mrs. M. Daskovsky, Mrs. H. R. Rabinowitz, Miss Helen Herzoff and Miss Sarah Welner. Other entertainment included a character interpretation by Miss Herzoff and a brief talk on "The Real Meaning of Purim" by Barney Baron.

About 75 persons attended the meeting. Refreshments were served.

Jewish Drama Club Is Formed to Give Plays

Group to Function as a Stock Company During Winter

THE Masque and Wig Players, a newly organized group of young persons interested in dramatics and the theater, held its first meeting recently at the Jewish Community center. The group is under the direction of Miss Florence Coates and meets once a week.

Plans are being made for the presentation of several one-act plays and a larger production of a three-act play in December. The club functions as a stock company, and has on its program for the year several plays before Sioux City organizations.

Charter members of the Masque and Wig Players include: William Slotsky, Eva Gordon, Ruth Wigodsky, Charlotte Salkin, Isadore Mirovitz, Alfred Albert, Mary Kaplan, Sara Baird, Ida Heshelow, Sovel Heshelow, Rose Rife, Ida Lipton, Eva Lipton, Charlotte Kanterovich, Sara Goldberg, Morris Merlin, Ben Herzoff, Milton Fishgold, Bess Kanterovich, Eva, Maron and Louis Slotsky.